Speyside

Speyside is recognised as the crème de la crème of whisky production and is home to more than half of Scotland's malt distilleries, 12 in total.

Broadly speaking, Speyside whiskies can be classified as falling into one of two camps. At one end of the spectrum there are the light, grassy, 'lunchtime whiskies' such as Glenlivet; at the other end lie the rich, sweet, sherried qualities of Glenrothes and Macallan.

Abelour 10 Year Old (40%).....£ 3.75
Quite full-bodied, spicy rich fruitcake, toffee notes and a creamy malty-feel.

Ardmore Traditional Cask (46%)..... £ 3.75
Notes of barley, vanilla, coffee and spice pertain to bourbon barrels, whilst soft Ardmore smoke develops alongside crème caramel.

Balvenie Double Wood 12 Year Old (40%).....£ 4.25
Sweet and malty palate with wonderfully expressive notes of bourbon barrel –particularly vanilla and nutmeg.

Benromach 10 Year Old (43%).....£ 3.75
Barley, slightly herbal, a little fruit, grassy. Big on malt, ground ginger.

Cardhu 12 Year Old (40%).....£ 4.75
Smooth, rounded, gentle sweetness, soft peat. A little smoke whispers sweet nothings.

Cragganmore 12 Year Old (40%).....£ 4.75
Manuka honey and apricots. A touch of roasted chestnut, Nutella and cranberry.

Glenfiddich 12 Year Old (40%).....£ 3.75
A gentle, easy-going palate with creamy spices, alongside buttery toffee, apple strudel and wine-like malt.

Glenlivet Founder's Reserve (40%) .....£ 3.75
Full gold in colour. Fruity overall backed by sweet biscuit notes. The taste is sweet with a creamy finish.

Barley wine leads the way with cinnamon, wood-smoke and heather honey.

Macallan Gold (40%).....£ 4.25
Spices, vanilla, walnut and rich malt. A good dolloped of fermented honey too.

StrathIsla 12 Year Old (40%).....£ 3.75
Malty core with notes of sultanas and cinnamon pastries. Allspice, cooked apple and mince pies.

Islay

The southernmost of its island chain, Islay is known as ‘The Queen of the Hebrides’ – and is certainly the reigning monarch of a typically smoky, peaty style of single malt whisky. But there’s much more to this beating heart of distillation, which has eight active producers – and more to come. The southern distilleries, Ardbeg, Laphroaig and Lagavulin are the most intense and not for the faint hearted.

- Ardbeg 10 Year Old (46%) .....£ 4.75
A mix of sweet, creamy vanilla, rich Ardbeg peat smoke, a thick and palate-coating whisky, with hints of limoncello, a little lime zest, cocoa and black pepper.
- Bowmore 12 Year Old (40%) .....£ 4.25
A big palate with dark peat, apple blossom.
- Bruichladdich 10 Year Old (46%).....£ 4.25
A mellow, oak sweetness with hints of bourbon and gingerbread, sherry and sultanas. Its fresh and frictionless, the texture of warm honey – then dry, crispy, malt barley.
- Bunnahabhain 12 Year Old (46.3%) .....£ 4.25
Apples, oranges and Oloroso sherry notes. Light caramel, hazelnut and malt.
- Caol Ila 12 Year Old (43%).....£ 4.75
A rich palate of oil, tar and elegant smoke.
- Lagavulin 16 Year Old (43%).....£ 6.25

Stella Artois (4.8%) Belgium .....£ 2.95

An optimum premium lager, with its full flavour and clean, crisp taste.

Liqueurs

A liqueur is an alcoholic beverage made from a distilled spirit flavoured with either fruit, cream, herbs, spices, flowers or nuts. Liqueurs are historical descendants of herbal medicines.

Baileys (17%) Ireland.....£ 3.25

Baileys is a perfect mix of fresh, premium quality Irish dairy cream, finest spirits, Irish whiskey and a proprietary recipe of chocolate flavours.

Disaronno/Amaretto (28%) Italy .....£ 3.00

Amber-coloured, velvety almond-flavoured liqueur created in Italy. It is a truly popular traditional digestif with intense flavour made from 17 herbs and fruits steeped in crushed apricot kernel oil. Although it tastes like almonds, it does not contain nuts.

Drambuie Whisky Liqueur (40%) Scotland.....£ 3.50

A combination of aged Scotch whiskies, heather honey and a recipe of secret ingredients, Drambuie is one of the best-known whisky liqueurs worldwide.

Frangelico (20%) Italy .....£ 3.00

Legendary Italian hazelnut liqueur made to a recipe dating around 300 years. Named after Father Angelico, a famous hermit monk of the day.

Glayva (35%) Scotland.....£ 3.25

Hugely popular Scottish liqueur made with whisky, honey, spices, almonds and tangerines. The name is the phonetic pronunciation of the Gaelic 'gle mhath' meaning 'very good'.

Grand Marnier (40%) France .....£ 3.95

Possibly the best known and most prestigious French liqueur in the world. Grand Marnier Cordon Rouge is delicate blend of fine Cognacs from the best growing areas, and distilled essence of wild tropical oranges.

Tia Maria (20%) Jamaica .....£ 2.75

A classic coffee liqueur, Tia Maria is a cunning combination of cane spirit, coffee, vanilla and sugar and has enjoyed worldwide success since its invention in Jamaica in the 1940s.

Islands

There are nearly 800 islands scattered off Scotland's crenelated coastline, of which only a few are inhabited – and fewer still have a distillery.

Excluding the whisky hotspot of Islay, the islands of Arran, Mull, Jura, Skye, Lewis and Orkney are home to an eclectic mix of styles, from light citrus to full-on peat smoke.

Highland Park 12 Year Old (40%) Orkney.....£ 3.75

The palate is medium-to-full with notes of orange and lemon zest. Develops with red vermouth, coastal air, tarry ropes and spice.

Highland Park 18 Year Old (43%) Orkney.....£ 11.25

Coffee beans and cream on the palate, which offers up cinnamon for complexity, hints of toffee apple and marmalade.

Isle of Jura 10 Year Old (40%) Jura.....£ 3.75

A fruity, spiced palate with vanilla, custard, linseed oil with plenty of salted caramel.

Ledaig 10 Year Old (46.3%) Mull.....£ 4.25

There are notes of spice and smoke gathering above the charred oak. The peat is quiet and dry with a touch of black pepper and earth.

Talisker 10 Year Old (45.8%) Skye.....£ 4.75

An intense, spicy palate – this is peppery, peaty and warming with notes of copper, toffee, apple blossom and zest.

Tobermory 10 Year Old (46.3%) Mull.....£ 3.75

Honey, burnt sugar, soft wood-smoke, black pepper and mixed peels.

Campbeltown

Campbeltown was once a thriving malt whisky region of no fewer than 34 distilleries – no mean feat for a small and remote settlement at the bottom of the long Kintyre peninsula. Now only two producers remain, but they make up for their paucity by producing five distinctive malt whiskies between them.

Glen Scotia Double Cask Malt (46%) .....£ 3.75

Glen Scotia Double Cask starts its life in first-fill bourbon barrels, before being finished in Pedro-Ximenez-sherry casks. Notes of spicy fruit and vanilla.

Springbank 10 Year Old (46%) .....£ 4.25

Matured in a combination of bourbon and sherry casks, it is perfectly balanced from the first sip through to the full, rich finish.

Lowlands

There's more distillation in the Lowlands than any other Scottish region, but its days as a significant single malt player are consigned to history. This is the home of the blend, and of the large quantities of grain whisky which form its foundation – but a few producers keep up the trademark light and grassy Lowland malt style.

AuchenToshan 3 Woods (43%) .....£ 5.25

Rich and full with dark honey, peppermint, cherries, cocoa and prunes.

Glenkinchie 12 Year Old (43%) .....£ 4.25

Very fruity palate with a mix of stewed fruits, dessert wine, apple peels and honey. Becomes quite oaky late palate.

Rum

The multi-coloured tapestry of rum styles spanning the Caribbean, Central & South America is as rich as the history and culture that encircles this great spirit.

Angostura 1919 Rum (43%) Trinidad & Tobago .....£ 3.75

Beautifully soft, revealing a generous and long-lasting array of toasty flavours as a result of long ageing in charred barrels.

Captain Morgans Spiced Rum (35%) Jamaica .....£ 2.50

Smooth and medium bodied, Captain Morgan's Spiced is based on a secret blend of premium Caribbean rums, mellow spice and other natural flavours.

Dunedin Rum (43%) Scotland .....£ 3.50

Quite possibly the first Scottish golden rum for over 100 years, Dunedin has a bold fruity nose with notes of dark chocolate. A complex blend of sweet vanilla and spicy flavours gives way to burnt sugar and caramel with an oaky finish.

Kraken Rum (40%) France .....£ 2.75

This Caribbean rum is aged between 1 and 2 years; spiced with cinnamon, clove and ginger. It is dark, strong, smooth and rich.

Mount Gay Eclipse Rum (40%) Barbados .....£ 2.50

From probably the oldest rum distillery in the world (dating from 1703), comes this legendary Barbados golden rum.

O.V.D. Demerara Rum (40%) Scotland .....£ 2.50

A full strength rum, every bottle of O.V.D. is matured in oak casks for up to 7 years giving it great smoothness, flavour and character.

- Gordon's Sloe Gin (26%) England .....£ 2.20
They take wild sloe berries and steep them gently, before adding Gordon's gin. The result is a wonderful tippie that mixes the dryness of Gordon's with the cassis sweetness.
- Gordon's Sloe Gin (26%) England .....£ 2.20
They take wild sloe berries and steep them gently, before adding Gordon's gin. The result is a wonderful tippie that mixes the dryness of Gordon's with the cassis sweetness.
- Hendricks (41.4%) Scotland .....£ 3.50
Whether it's the apothecary-style bottle or the sight of a gin and tonic garnished with a slice of cucumber, Hendrick's is a distinctive and recognisable gin that has opened many people's eyes to less traditional gins.
- Ophir (40%) England.....£ 3.75
Warm and exotic spice alongside sweet citrus notes. Perfect served with ginger ale.
- Rock Rose Gin (42%) Scotland.....£ 3.50
Juniper berries, rhodibla rosea from the cliffs of Caithness....
- Sipsmith (41.6%) England.....£ 3.50
The quintessential expression of a classic, traditional London Dry Gin. Bold, complex and aromatic, but rich and balanced. Perfect for a gin and tonic.
- Strathearn Heather Rose (40%) Scotland.....£ 3.00
Heather Rose Gin has a combination of rose and heather with a prosecco character. The colour of the gin changes to a delicate pink when tonic is added.
- Strathearn Scottish (47%) Scotland .....£ 3.00
Double distilled. Woody, earthy and very slightly sweet juniper, with a hint of lemon peel.
- Tanqueray (43.1%) England .....£ 2.75
Very flavoursome with a tart cut, snappy spice and alcoholic heat on the finish.
- Tanqueray 10 (47.3%) England .....£ 4.75
Sublimely fresh with depth highlighted by flavours of grapefruit, orange & lime.Mellowed by juniper and camomile.
- The Botanist (46%) Scotland .....£ 3.75
Made by the geniuses at the Bruichladdich Distillery, this Islay gin is packed full with an array of different botanicals – including wild Islay juniper.

Highlands

By far the largest producing region, the Highland region stretches from the North of Glasgow all the way to the northernmost tip of the east coast and beyond. It incorporates probably the widest range of styles of malt whisky, and as a result, it is difficult to make sweeping statements. Edradour has long prided itself on being Scotland's smallest distillery, and is situated near the popular Perthshire town of Pitlochry.

- Auchroisk 10 Year Old (43%) .....£ 5.25
Quite sweet with a pleasant softness, light, fresh and well balanced with apple sweetness.
- Dalmore Malt 12 Year Old (40%) .....£ 4.75
Orange and cocoa on the palate, with hints of wintry spices, a little cocoa and café lattes.
- Dalwhinnie 15 Year Old (43%) .....£ 4.75
A malty palate with walnut loaf, acacia honey and cinnamon.
- Deanston 12 Year Old (46.3%) .....£ 3.75
Supple palate with creamy malt, salty oak and marzipan.
- Edradour 10 Year Old (40%) .....£ 4.75
A sweet, thick palate with dark rum, custard apples, chocolate malt and golden syrup.
- Glen Garioch 12 Year Old (48%) .....£ 4.75
Matured in American bourbon to lighten and Spanish sherry casks to add dimension in flavouring. Its aromas include fresh heather, poached pears and oak undertones.
- Glengoyne 10 Year Old (40%).....£ 3.75
A malty, sweet palate, again with that bourbon character coming through. This is incredibly creamy and luxurious, and it develops gently with dried figs and barley.
- Glenmorangie 10 Year Old (40%) .....£ 3.50
A well-balanced, rounded palate with rhubarb and custard sweets, nectarine slices in Greek yoghurt, drizzled with chestnut honey, and a hint of chocolate éclair sweets.
- Oban Malt 14 Year Old (43%).....£ 5.25
A rich and smoky nose with notes of seaweed saltiness. The taste is smooth with notes of sweetness and citrus and the finish is of a good length.
- Old Pulteney 12 Year Old (40%).....£ 3.75
Dry, medium bodied and smooth, redolent of honey and cream, faintly salty with a slight spicy note and a sweet long-lasting finish.
- Royal Lochnagar 12 Year Old (40%) .....£ 4.75
Delightful balance of fruit and spices. Pleasantly acidic; such initial sweetness as there is quickly subsumed by acidity.
- Tullibardine Sovereign (43%).....£ 3.75
A delicious creamy single malt which was aged in first-fill bourbon barrels before bottling. Expect plenty of vanilla and spice from this Highland Dram.

Blended Whisky & Whiskies

Famous Grouse (40%) Scotland .....£ 1.90

Light and balanced. Spice, barley. Caramel, touch of smoke.
